

OPENING TODAY . . . The annual Rancho Days Carnival sponsored by the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce opens on the Del Amo Center near Sepulveda and Madrona Avenue today and will run through Sunday. President Ron Steward of the Jaycees and Carnival Chairman Rod Granger say the 1966 edition is the largest fun-fair offered for the Torrance area this year. Shown here is the double Ferris wheel which will be one of the new attractions this week.

REMODELING CHECK . . . Lou Schlanger of Torrance Men's Store, Sartori and Marcelina in Downtown Torrance, checks as carpenter Doug Collins installs a new sheet of mahogany paneling in the popular men's store. Now in the midst of a storewide clearance sale, Schlanger reports that the store will remain open during the remodeling and decorating process. The store will feature several top lines of merchandise at the end of the sale, including Hush Puppies and Florsheim shoes, and Petrocilli suits and sports coats. Sales items include Martinelli, Hart Shaffner & Marx suits and leading brands of shirts and sports clothes.

High School Juniors Urged to Seek Air Force Academy Bids

High school juniors who are interested in entering the United States Air Force Academy upon graduation are reminded to apply for a nomination as soon as possible, said Lt. Colonel Doug Burks, the Academy liaison officer in the Torrance area.

Members of Congress have already begun to nominate candidates to the class entering the Academy in June 1967. The United States Senators and Representatives submit the names of their nominees to the Academy no later than January 31, 1967. Since nominating quotas are limited for each Member of Congress, the student should not delay his application.

Senators and Representatives are interested in nominating successful high school students to be considered for Academy appointments from their states and congressional districts. A good scholastic standing, participation in extracurricular activities, and physical fitness are the most important factors considered by Congressmen in choosing their nominees.

Lt. Col. Burks is a member of the Air Force Reserve, not on active duty, who represents the Academy in high schools in the Torrance area. He urges students who are interested in the Academy to get in touch with him for information concerning the application procedures and entrance examinations. He may be contacted by writing him at 1209 W. 161 St. in Gardena or by calling 324-3869.

RANCHERO DAYS

Rodeo Slated Next Weekend

Two performances of the top bareback buckers in the business will be on hand. The contest—one of six standard events in today's rodeos—has become increasingly popular with fans, Lt. Cook said.

Performances will be given at 2 p.m. each day at the Del Amo Center. The arena will be located on Sepulveda Boulevard near Madrona Street.

This year's rodeo will be "bigger and better" than previous ones, according to Capt. Gus Cochrane of the Torrance Mounted Police and Ozzie Grimes, Exalted Ruler of the Torrance Elks. The two groups are sponsoring the rodeo.

Bareback riding will be a major event at the rodeo. Police Lt. D. C. Cook, rodeo coordinator, said some of the Rodeo events also include trick riding, calf roping, bulldogging, saddle bronc riding, wild bull riding, and barrel racing.

Tickets for the rodeo may be obtained from the Torrance Chamber of Commerce or from members of the Torrance Mounted Police and Elks.

The California State Fair's nightly rodeo is the longest of any on the Rodeo Cowboy Association schedule. The 1966 State Fair runs Aug. 31-Sept. 11.

TACKLE THAT BULL . . . Steer wrestling is no easy chore, especially when the quarry outweighs the man three to one, but it can be rewarding. Such contests, sanctioned by the Rodeo Cowboys Association, resulted in some $675,000 in prize money last season. Additional prize money will be awarded top winners of the event at the Torrance Rancho Days Rodeo Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 13 and 14.
